STANDARDS-BASED LEARNING WORKSHOP SERIES

MARCH 7, 14, 21

WORK IN PROGRESS

Are you looking for a supportive group of teachers to understand and practice standards-based learning? If so, come and join us!
March 7, 2024, 4:00-5:00 pm
Session 1: Deconstruction of a Student Work Sample
Participants will use a student work sample from their classroom to unpack and analyze a Next Generation Learning Standard. With support, the work will be analyzed to find what level of learning was demonstrated based on the represented standard.

March 14 & 21, 2024, 4:00-5:00 pm
Sessions 2 & 3: New Construction for an Aligned Standard & Future Activities
With support, participants will self-select a grade-level learning standard(s) to unpack and align to an instructional activity. This work will be designed to use with students in a future unit. The objective is for participants to finish the sessions with a standards-based aligned activity, including a leveled assessment tool.
