

How to Differentiate Instruction in Academically Diverse Classrooms

BY CAROL ANN TOMLINSON

SUMMER BLENDED BOOK SERIES

Carol Ann Tomlinson's book helps teachers connect differentiation to existing practices, and offers practical strategies for differentiation in every day planning.

Participants in this course will

- explore the foundations of differentiation and learn a decision making model to make grade level curriculum accessible to all students.
- look at actual lessons, units, and classrooms with differentiated instruction in action, with content relevant for elementary and secondary classrooms in nearly all subject areas.
- problem solve and share ideas to understand how to infuse differentiation into everyday practice.

Register Now!

BOOK:

How to Differentiate Instruction in Academically Diverse Classrooms

DATES: July 17, 19, 21, 25, and 27

Facilitated by: Diana Scarselletta Straut | dstraout@measinc.com

[Click Here
for Course
Syllabus](#)

Book Study Details:

- Participants must obtain their own copy of the book - used, borrowed, digital, hard copy - whatever is best for you and your budget.
- This course will meet synchronously via Zoom from 9:00am - 10:30am on July 17, 19, 21, 25, and 27.
- An additional 1.5 hours each day will be allotted for asynchronous work of independent reading and postings. See the course syllabus and Google Classroom for more information.
- Up to 15 CTLE credits will be awarded upon completion.

The New York State Office of Religious and Independent Schools
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
RESOURCE CENTER (PDRC)
The Upstate PDRC - All NYS Regions North of NYC

MEASUREMENT
INCORPORATED