

LITERACY IN ACTION

A PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SERIES

The Upstate PDRC and the Long Island PDRC, in collaborative partnership, are pleased to offer our newest series: Literacy In Action: Research-based practices for school leaders and teachers.

This series will:

- Deepen literacy educators' toolboxes
- Develop networks of colleagues across the state
- Provide tools for observation of practice and reflection
- Explore the impact of brain science on teaching and learning
- Offer tried and true strategies to support struggling readers

TUESDAYS 3PM-4PM

JANUARY 18 TO FEBRUARY 15

Session 1: Reading and the Brain: Implications for Teaching & Learning

Session 2: From Understanding Sounds to Understanding Complex Text

Session 3: Evidence-Based Practices for Greater Results: Explicit Direct Instruction

Session 4: High-Leverage Literacy Strategies for Higher Order Thinking

Session 5: When Students Might Need Something Different

Who should join?

NEW TEACHERS: looking for strategies

SEASONED TEACHERS: looking for a refresh

LEADERS: looking to take your instructional support for your teachers to a new level

FOR MORE INFORMATION

CLICK OR SCAN HERE

